- Reunion lunch The Naval and Military club has been booked for the 24th April 2007. Final arrangements as to catering and cost left to the Treasurer and Secretary. All Agreed

CARERS. Moved Cec Rae, Seconded J. Hepworth that carers of members should be welcomed, and pay the same fee as members for lunch. All Agreed

INVITATION. The President reported that he had extended an invitation to Ron Berry. Ron, for the past 20 years has kept the computer listing of our members up to date. He has also, at no cost to the Association, supplied and printed the address labels for "Take Post" A great effort, much appreciated!

- Take Post The Secretary reported that the survey twelve months ago, found that 120 members, widows or other family members still enjoyed and wanted "Take Post". This will reduce the number to be printed and will be a saving on postage also

Anzac March

The Secretary reported that we will start from West side of Swanston St. between Little Collins St and Bourke St. at approx 9.40 am. Our joint leaders will be Mal Webster and John Campbell

Younger Generation Group

The President initiated a discussion on the Associations Future, as all members are getting older. 2/2 Pioneers have started such a group with a successful start. It was agreed in principle that this idea should be explored. The President is to talk to a number of people who have expressed interest, then bring the result to the next Annual General Meeting on the 24th April, when a decision will be made as to our future

Moved John Hepworth, Seconded Cec Rae

All Agreed.

Meeting declared closed at 3.45 pm
